

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 22-CR-308-JFH

JOSE RODRIGUEZ-SOTO,

Defendant.

OPINION AND ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on its own motion. Defendant Jose Rodriguez-Soto (“Defendant”) pled guilty to unlawful reentry of a removed alien on October 14, 2022. See Dkt. No. 20. Defendant also filed a waiver of rights regarding presentence investigation and report, stating he waived “any and all rights he may have regarding the preparation of, and notice regarding, the presentence investigation and report in this matter . . . with the aim that such waiver may expedite his sentencing in this matter.” Dkt. No. 21 at 1.

Under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32, the United States Probation Office must conduct a presentence investigation and submit a report to the Court before sentencing unless the Court finds that the information in the record enables it to meaningfully exercise its sentencing authority under 18 U.S.C. § 3553 and explains its finding on the record. Fed. R. Crim. P. 32(c)(1)(A)(ii). A defendant’s waiver of presentence report is not effective without an order from the Court. And while the Court has broad discretion not to order a presentence investigation report, “dispensing with a presentence report should be done very rarely and then only if accompanied with a statement of the reasons therefor.” United States v. Manuella, 478 F.2d 440, 442 (2d Cir. 1973).

Because of the unprecedented criminal caseloads resulting from the Supreme Court's decision in McGirt v. Oklahoma, 140 S.Ct. 2452 (2020), the current average time between a change of plea and sentencing in this District is longer than anyone—litigants, attorneys, or the Court—would prefer. However, this by itself is not a sufficient reason for the Court to waive a presentence investigation before sentencing an individual. Defendant's waiver does not provide sufficient factual background for the Court to find that the information in the record would enable it to meaningfully exercise its sentencing authority under 18 U.S.C. § 3553 without a presentence report.<sup>1</sup>

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Court does not waive preparation of the presentence investigation report by the United States Probation Office. Defendant may participate in the report preparation process, or not, as he so desires.

Dated this 26th day of October 2022.

<sup>1</sup> Section 3553 requires the Court to impose a sentence that is sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes of sentencing. These purposes include the need for the sentence to reflect the seriousness of the crime, promote respect for the law, and provide just punishment for the offense. Sentencing should deter criminal conduct, protect the public from future crime by the defendant, and promote rehabilitation. In addition to the guidelines and policy statements, the Court should consider the nature and circumstances of the offense, the history and characteristics of the defendant, the need to avoid unwarranted sentence disparities among similarly situated defendants any needed training, medical care, or other treatment, and the types of sentences available. 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a).
